PROFILE

I am a 23 year old girl and originally from Denmark. I believe I have acquired the necessary skills through my previous employment that would make me suitable for all kinds of jobs in the service industry. My job as a flight attendant has provided me with the necessary skills in customer service, communication and addressing customers needs as well as working well in a team environment. I feel all of these skills would allow me to be effective and adaptable for all situations and to perform at a high standard under pressure. I'm a focused, hard working person by nature but I also enjoy a fun, energetic and dynamic workplace with like-minded individuals.
